

The Coconino Sun

VOL. XVIII.

FLAGSTAFF, JULY 13, 1901.

No. 28

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A. T. Cornish is in Los Angeles, Cal. Buy a Brownie kodak, $1, at Babbitt Bros.

Harry Fulton returned Sunday from Chicago.

Coffin's specials—fresh fruits and vegetables.

Born—In Flagstaff, July 10, 1901, to the wife of J. Backman, a son.

Dr. W. S. Robinson has moved his office to rooms over the postoffice.

W. J. Cain and wife of Phoenix are registered at the Hotel Weatherford.

C. F. Bandy, one of the mail carriers of Phoenix, is spending his vacation here.

Mrs. Todd of Los Angeles is visiting her daughters, Misses Agnes and Jessie Todd.

Misses Mabel and Maud Norris, daughters of T. G. Norris of Prescott, are visiting relatives here.

Wanted—A girl for general housework. Small family and light work; good pay. Apply at this office. 3t *

Frank Fay returned last week from Wickenburg, where he has been engaged in mining for the past year.

Mrs. P. B. Brannen, mother of Dr. D. J. Brannen, arrived from Tucson last week and will spend the next two months here.

Remember the dates of the special renovating sale at the New York Store, nine days only, July 5 to July 13, both days inclusive.

Call at the Pioneer Drug Store and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. †

W. B. Ridenour, a prominent mining man from Hackberry, Mohave county, spent several days here this week. He is negotiating the sale of the Pine Springs copper mines in this county.

There is considerable rivalry between Bisbee and Flagstaff as to which is the dirtiest town in Arizona. The local papers claim for each the questionable dis-tink-tion.—Florence Tribune.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church purpose giving an ice cream social at the New Bank Hotel on Friday evening of next week, July 19. A musical and literary program will be provided. All are invited.

Mrs. J. E. Palmer and sons George and John left Wednesday for Reno, Nevada. Mr. Palmer has a position with the Western Union Telegraph Company at that place and has been there for several weeks.

F. B. Biestman, wife and infant son spent several days here this week, the guests of M. J. Kennedy and family. Mr. Biestman has been for some time past in charge of the Harvey eating house at Gallup, but will locate in California.

The Journal-Miner, speaking of the extent of forest fires in that reserve, mentions a fire that burned over one hundred and fifty acres. Up in this reserve a fire that burns over less than a thousand acres is not worth mentioning, and a fire that burns over ten thousand acres, as the one of last week did, is worthy of a stick mention.

Mrs. John Sanderson left Monday for Denver, Colo.

Nicely furnished rooms for rooms for rent. Apply at this office. *

George K. Woods and wife are spending the week at Oak Creek.

If you want something really fine in the way of fresh fruits, go to Coffin's new store.

J. M. Brannen, manager for Babbitt Bros.' store at Winslow, was in town Wednesday.

When you want the best goods for the least money buy of P. R. Weatherford & Co. †

The finest of flavors and the best cream is used in our ice cream sodas. W. H. Timerhoff. *

William Friedlein, who has been quite sick for the past two weeks is reported improving to-day.

The eleven months' old girl of Mr. and Mrs. John Garrett died Sunday morning after a brief illness.

Mrs. Myra Coffin of Lawrence, Kan., has charge of the store of her brother, Geo. H. Coffin, during his absence.

Geo. F. Schaal, the Winslow jeweler, spent several days here this week, renewing his acquaintance with old friends.

Any one wishing a man's bicycle cheap will do well to consult A. B. Hermann of Flagstaff. A wheel when new worth $45. †

"It could not be better," is the universal verdict of all who have tried Timerhoff's ice cream sodas. Made of pure cream and flavored with crushed fruits.

J. L. Williams, who left here in April last for Colorado, died in Glenwood Springs this week. He was a member of the I. O. O. F. and A. O. U. W. lodges of this place.

Prof. W. C. Whitford, principal of Whitford College, at Milton, Wis., is spending the month here. Prof. Whitford is an old friend of Mrs. J. R. Treat and he is stopping at the Treat residence.

The SUN sends out with this issue the oration made by Mr. Percival Lowell here on the Fourth of July as a supplement. It will profit every reader of the SUN to read the address of Mr. Lowell.

Dr. Geo. B. Pratt, the Arizona optician, is attending the meeting of the International Epworth League at San Francisco, and his professional visit here has been postponed until some time in August.

Miss Margaret McGowan, a teacher in the public schools of Pasadena, Cal., is in Flagstaff and will spend her vacation here. Miss McGowan spent the summer here two years ago and has many warm friends in Flagstaff.

The artesian well recently struck east of Holbrook is a valueless proposition. The water is so salt that it cannot be utilized for any purpose. It is a large flow of water and if it were fresh it would be of great value to the Little Colorado valley.

L. H. Chalmers and wife of Phoenix arrived here Wednesday night with the intention of spending the next two months at Oak Creek, but shortly after their arrival here they received a telegram from Los Angeles announcing the serious illness of Mrs. Chalmers' father, and they left for that city Thursday.

Take your girl to Timerhoff's for an ice cream soda. *

Eastman's kodaks and photo supplies at Eastern prices at Babbitt's. *

The best pure sap maple syrup to be found at P. R. Weatherford & Co.'s. †

Mrs. H. Diamond of Denver, Colo., is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. Herman.

Burton Mossman, who has been here for the past two weeks, left for Bisbee Thursday.

Miss Mabel Milligan of Denver, Col., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Milligan.

P. R. Weatherford & Co., have just received a car of the celebrated Club House Flour. †

The services of an experienced nurse can be obtained by applying to Mrs. A. Grant, at Mrs. Murphy's.

C. H. McClure, who has been here for the past week, returned to the Copper King mine Thursday.

Mrs. E. E. Ellinwood and children left Wednesday on a visit to her former home in Rock Creek, Ohio.

Fire Insurance—The Arizona Central Bank represents a number of the largest American and English companies. *

Mrs. J. J. Davis and daughters left Monday for Prescott, where they expect to remain. Mr. Davis is engaged in mining near Prescott.

Mrs. J. C. Herndon and son Charles W., of Prescott, spent Wednesday night here. They came here to meet friends from the East, and returned to Prescott Thursday.

The New York Store will be renovated. Prior to the cleaning Mr. Herman will have a renovating sale, from July 5 to July 13, when a sale will be made that will be a money saver. *

Frank C. Watson and bride arrived Sunday from the East. Mr. Watson will be the manager of the Flagstaff Mutual Telephone Company and entered upon his new duties this week.

On Sunday morning, at 11 o'clock, holy communion will be administered at the Methodist church, and in the evening at 8 o'clock the pastor will preach a special sermon for the benefit of young women. A general invitation is extended.

Mr. and Mrs. Lottie Beal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Beal, returned home Thursday. Miss Beal has been attending a school of music at Baltimore, Md., for the past two years for instruction in vocal and instrumental music.

H. R. Davis, who has for the past ten years been connected with the local freight and passenger office of the Santa Fe Pacific, left last week for Colorado Springs, where he has accepted a responsible position with the Rio Grande Railroad.

At the meeting of the town council on Monday E. E. Ellinwood tendered his resignation as mayor and it was accepted by the council. T. E. Pollock was chosen by the council as his successor. The resignation of Mr. Ellinwood was made for the reason that he will within a few weeks enter upon the practice of law at Prescott, and the most of his time will be spent in that city. Mr. Ellinwood has made an excellent mayor. He is still a member of the town council and is in position to do good work for the town.

Fresh berries of all varieties at Coffin's. *

Oscar Verkamp of Cincinnati is visiting relatives here.

See prices on shoes at Weatherford & Co., before buying elsewhere. †

Porter Guffey left yesterday on a short visit to his former home in Liberal, Mo.

If you want a good trunk for a small amount of money call on P. R. Weatherford & Co. †

C. E. Van Nest and wife left Monday for California, where they intend to reside in the future.

Agents wanted, ladies or men, to sell gilt-edge oil stocks. Queen Oil Co., 916 Market street, San Francisco, California. *

N. N. Nay, of Chicago, Ill., who recently spent several weeks here for the benefit of his health, is now located in Los Angeles.

FOR RENT—Two well furnished rooms in the central part of the city; in private family; for steady men; rates reasonable. Inquire at this office.

The New Bank hotel has been refurbished and is now open to the public. Mrs. F. T. McMillan is the new manager, and will for the present run the hotel on the European plan. †

Dent & Sayer finished loading their wool clip for the season yesterday. There were three carloads of it, and the shipment was made to Boston, where it will be stored, awaiting better prices.

George H. Coffin left Thursday for Springfield, Mo., where he will be married to Miss Etta Farmer of that city on Tuesday next. Mr. Coffin and bride are expected to reach Flagstaff about August 1.

J. R. Lockett last week killed a wildcat at the Lockett Bros.' ranch, north of town. A deer also stopped to gaze at the premises on Friday of last week. The Locketts are now awaiting a visit from a grizzly bear.

J. C. Brown, when he resigned as manager of the Saginaw-Manistee Lumber Company at Williams, went to Los Angeles and engaged in the oil business. One of the wells in which he is interested struck a flow of two hundred barrels per day. Oil investors of Arizona consider Mr. Brown as being exceedingly fortunate.

J. D. Walter and Mrs. Pearl Thompson were married this morning by Probate Judge Layton. Both contracting parties are comparative strangers here. Mr. Walter is a lawyer and located here in the early part of the year and the bride is a recent arrival. They ought to escape the mistakes giddy young married people are subject to. The groom is 80 years old and the bride has passed 47 summers. They will spend their honeymoon in the Sky-light City.

Baseball League.

The baseball clubs of Flagstaff, Williams and Winslow have formed a league and games will be played as follows: Flagstaff at Williams, July 14; Winslow at Flagstaff, July 21; Williams at Winslow, July 28; Williams at Flagstaff, August 4; Flagstaff at Winslow, August 11; Winslow at Williams, August 18. The clubs are very evenly matched and some interesting games may be looked for by lovers of baseball.